

AFAC News Line # 1 – ALERT Line provides valuable service to Alberta’s livestock industry - Pam Miller – November 1, 2011 – Audio Clip Transcriptions

Audio 1 (18 seconds)

“The line, 1-800-506-2273, is a 24 hour, 7 day a week confidential line that encourages anyone to call that has livestock concerns. It is also available to assist those producers who are experiencing problems in caring for their animals.”

Audio 2 (21 seconds)

“The ALERT Line vets, the resource teams and the industry personnel used in the ALERT cases are prepared to give non-confrontational consul to producers in need of crisis management advice. The role of the ALERT Line vet is not to alleviate pain or sickness but to provide advice and recommendations for management problems.”

Audio 3 (17 seconds)

“AFAC has a unique working relationship with the ALBERTA SPCA. Their officers provide livestock protection and enforcement throughout the province and our AFAC resource teams and on-call vets provide the SPCA with additional expertise and experience.”
