

RAISING CHICKENS WORKSHOPS

Backyard & Barnyard

SESSION ONE

Widewater Community Complex
Saturday, May 4th
10:00 am

SESSION TWO

Flatbush Community Complex
Saturday, May 4th
2:00 pm

*Are you raising your own chickens for profit or personal use?
Would you like to?*

PRESENTED BY CASSANDRA KIRKPATRICK

Animal & Poultry Science Expert, specializing in Poultry Care, lead specialist on the publication "Urban Chicken/Small Flock Care Manual" and the Alberta Poultry Handling and Transportation Resource.

Workshop topics include:

- BUILDING A COOP
- FEEDING THE BIRDS
- OVER WINTERING
- DIFFERENT BREEDS
- FINANCIAL COMMITMENTS
- TIME COMMITMENTS
- DISEASES
- BIOSECURITY
- FOOD SAFETY

All registered participants will take home a user-friendly chicken raising manual, a USB drive with instructional video content, a flock owner checklist, and biosecurity signage.

...refreshments provided!

Please pre-register to ensure you get take-home info, and indicate which session you wish to attend. Call the Flatbush sub-office at 1.866.681.3929 or Email Peggy.Laing@mdlsr.ca.

Lesser Slave River